

INVITATION

All Villagers are invited to an informal community

“Chat ‘n Chew”

When: TONIGHT (Thursday, 30 May 2019)
Time: 6 – 7 pm
Where: Tumbulgum Tavern

Complimentary food will be provided.

Families welcome

You may recall that the Bureau of Meteorology undertook to work with our community to upgrade flood warnings after the 2017 flood. The resultant Tumbulgum Flood Warning and Response Project was awarded the Flood Risk Management Project of the Year Award at the recent Floodplain Management Australia National Conference.

Come along to meet the members of the team, learn about the project and say thank you.
